§ 655.3 Determinations.

(a) When received, applications for certification shall be forwarded by the State Workforce Agency to the appropriate National Processing Center, who will issue them if he or she finds that qualified persons in the United States are not available and that the terms of employment will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of workers in the United States similarly employed.

(b) In making this finding, such matter as the employer's attempts to recruit workers and the appropriateness of the wages and working conditions offered, will be considered. The policies of the United States Employment Service set forth in part 652 of this chapter and subparts B and C of this part shall be followed in making the findings.

(c) In any case in which the OFLC Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, determines after examination of all the pertinent facts before him or her that certification should not be issued, he or she shall promptly so notify the employer requesting the certification. Such notification shall contain a statement of the reasons on which the refusal to issue a certification is based.

(d) The certification or notice of denial thereof is to be used by the employer to support its visa petition, filed with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services of the Department of Homeland Security.
